Have you ever noticed how some writers will begin by writing: "As I sit down to write these lines ... yada yada" ... ? Terrible. But I am about to do it.

As I sit down to write Thanksgiving is behind us and the remainder of the holidays are almost upon us. Which means I must make haste here to get this issue of Northlander ready. This issue is a web only version. There is no printed version for December. You might ask why and I will give you the two or three reasons why.

Making haste is one reason. It seems to me that week of polishing the issue and getting it to the printer is always the current week. And as we approached November there seemed to be less time available than in previous months. The editors and contributors were under pressure. Our budget was under pressure too...those lovely 8.5 x 11 issues do cost a little more.

We decided to give everyone a bit of a break for the holidays. In order to share some of the recent events and review the year, and to give our advertisers the 12th issue we had alluded to, we decided to make this web only version for December.

Someone said to me: "Web only. Some people are not on the internet and wont get a copy." I find it hard to believe people who have a Porsche do not have internet. It could be true. It is an interesting demographic. I would like to get a head count ... so please, if you fit this set please drop me an e-mail. ☺

The year in review. I have been going through the Northlander files and my photo files first for the Year Book and later for the poster. More on these two topics in a moment. While going through these files for 2007 I must conclude I shot more photographs than in any previous year and I can see in these photographs NCR has been a very busy group. We do work hard. And we do play hard. It is the right way to live.

The Year Book is not the same as previous years. PCA have new requirements for the Year Book that goes to the competition. Being a photographer I could not allow the opportunity to gather together a collection of pictures recording our year to simply go away. We have had the tradition at NCR to give the book to the President for the year. Another idea that should not be allowed to slip away. So...with the help of Ivy we decided to make a book as a part of the banquet and see if it generated any interest. I must admit to being pleasantly surprised at how many members wanted to have a copy. In case you missed that preview copy I will make a page later in this issue to describe the book. If you want one please be quick and drop me an email at: Northlander@ncr-pca.org.

The poster is another graphic idea. Our ad manager, Matt Romanowski, wanted a poster depicting our club during 2007. A poster to encourage new members, to pass to advertisers, and perhaps also for members of NCR who are graphic enthusiasts too. Another page in this issue will describe the poster. If you want one drop an email to Matt at: advertising@ncr-pca.org.

What will 2008 bring? A year as good or better than 2007 I think. To kick it off Northlander will have a January issue with interesting articles and some glorious photos from Rennsport Reunion III. A few NCR members were down there in Daytona and had a blast. For a teaser and preview see Don Osborne's photos at the end of this issue.

It seems a little early for greetings but then we do have Thanksgiving behind us and a little snow on the ground. Greetings are in order: Happy Holidays and a Happy New Year.

David

NCR-PCA YEAR BOOK 2007

The book was shown at the banquet and to our delight several persons have asked for a copy. As this web version of Northlander goes to press we do not have the final price of the book. But this should be available the first week of December.

If you would be interested in getting a copy email David at Northlander@NCR-PCA.org

With a total count we can negotiate the price with the publisher. Expect about $125 for the 11 x 15 and $90 for a 9 x 11

Northlander will email final details to those interested before we place the printing order.

Make your Porsche dreams come true.

NCR MAILING LISTS

NCR has the Northlander and its website to keep members updated on club events and current officers, board members and committee heads. But many members may not know there are two electronic mail lists which allow for last minute announcements as well as giving members a forum to ask a car-related question. Below I explain each list and how to sign on.

First thing you do is go to <http://ncr-pca.org/mailman/listinfo>

NCR-Members – Once you're on the link above this is the first list you see. The list is open to all members and can be used to discuss any topic you think of interest to other members. When you subscribe you're put on a send and receive mailing list.

Click the NCR-Members link and scroll down to "Subscribing to NCR-Members." Enter the e-mail address you want to use for this list and pick a password. Once you've set that up you'll receive messages from others subscribed to NCR-Members. The "Subscribe" page is also the "edit" and "unsubscribe" page so you want to add this link to your Bookmarks or Favorites. Also, to post a message to NCR-Members you send an e-mail to ncr-members@ncr-pca.org, so you'll want to add that e-mail address to your address book.

NCR-News – Going back to the link above you'll see the second list is NCR-News. This is a "one-way" e-mail. That means when you subscribe, the only e-mails you'll get from NCR-News will be club news-related announcements sent by the list administrator. These e-mails should NOT be replied to. If you are asked to contact anyone in an NCR-News e-mail, that person's information will be within the e-mail.

Click on the NCR-News link and scroll down to "Subscribing to NCR-News," just like you did with NCR-Members. You'll be asked to enter an e-mail address and password, like NCR-Members. Again, this page allows you to edit and unsubscribe so you'll want to add it to your Bookmarks or Favorites. You cannot post messages to NCR-News so there is no e-mail address for this list.

In case you're concerned about too many e-mails, both NCR-Members and NCR-News are quiet lists. Members post to NCR-Members maybe 6 times a year. NCR-News is more frequent but still only posts once or twice a month depending on how busy the club's social calendar is. NCR-Members allows you to ask about a car problem you're experiencing or ask advice about other car-related topics. NCR-News is a great way to get information on a last minute social event and to remind of upcoming events.

So stay informed and get good advice from those who have "been there and done that." Join NCR-Members and NCR-News today.

FEEDING THE PROGRAMS
THAT FEED THE HUNGRY

Dear Ms. Hendrickson

On behalf of the New Hampshire Food Bank, I would like to thank you for donating $6,000, raised from the combined August 26th and October 7th Shows! We did also collect $95 from the October 7th Show. We have put your total contribution right to work here at the Food Bank helping to provide 24,380 meals to needy folks in the Granite State.

Again thank you for your continued support. The North Country Region-Porsche Club of America's honors us with your commitment to help end hunger in NH. Thanks to community supporters like you we are able to carry out our mission to feed the needy and disadvantaged in our state.

In New Hampshire, nearly 100,000 people live at or below poverty; 28,000 of those are children. The New Hampshire Food Bank, a program of New Hampshire Catholic Charities, works to increase the availability and distribution of high-quality, nutritious foods to a network of food pantries, soup kitchens, children's programs, and elderly meal sites that feed the hungry. As the only food bank in New Hampshire, we serve those in need through our network of nearly 350 member agencies in the state. Because of your help we will distribute over 4.3 million pounds of food to our neighbors in need in 2007.

To find out how you can continue to help families in need, please visit our website at www.nhfoodbank.org or call us at 669-9725. You can also help end hunger by telling your friends about this program – awareness is key to ending hunger in our state.

On behalf of all the families and children who will benefit from your donation, thank you for your generous support!

Sincerely,

Melanie A. Gosselin
Executive Director

RACING TO THE END OF 2007

NCR'S 30th YEAR CELEBRATION WAS A PARTY WITH STYLE

Ivy Leonard

Although it was a cold November evening at the New England Center in Durham, NH, over 70 members and guests turned out to NCR's Annual Banquet/ 30th Celebration. The round tables were set beautifully with yellow napkins (wonder who picked those out!) and special vase centerpieces containing a fish swimming around a mini Porsche. A slide show presented on a huge drop down screen entertained everyone with photos of 2007 events. Background music played as folks shuffled in to find their seats or just mingle with others. On the far wall was a long table with NCR's 30th anniversary cake decorated in buttercream frosting with the club's logo. Beside that was the recently published 2007 NCR Yearbook for people to browse through.

The event was well attended event by many of the usual members, though as always even seeing many new faces this year proved to be special. (Dean ...what a story!) All the long hard hours of preparation paid off for me. It was great to see everyone having such fun!

The evening was filled with great conversations, wonderful food, some great humor and just plain fun. Many spectacular prizes were awarded which included a weekend at the Balsams Resort!

DJ Steve "Rockin'" Robbins showed us what adding just a little music to the event could do. The many dancers proved they wanted more. Having the added entertainment proved positive judging by the glow on member faces from the fun they were having.

There were a few awards handed out during the Annual Banquet with the first being NCR Instructor of the Year. Usually presented by Bob Tucker (we missed you Bob!) the award was presented by myself and Tom Harris, NCR Instructor, to Steve Gratton. The DE Enthusiasts of the Year for the first time were a couple...Toni and Lew Surdham. Lisa Roche received the Doug Hendrickson Enthusiast of the Year Award. The prestigious Mary O Spaghetti Award presented by Jack Saunders for exiting the car at Lime Rock in September went to Yours Truly.

NCR is truly a special group. Get togethers like our Annual Banquet/Beginning of the 30th Celebration are like a family holiday affair. No one is a stranger. It always comes down to...it is not about the cars it is about the people.

We look forward to seeing you all at the continued celebration of the 30th full year in 2008. And if you missed this year's festivities we hope to see you at the 2008 Annual Banquet.
